

Ecofeminism 2001:

Creating an Ecofeminist Future

This lecture with Chaia Heller provides an introduction to Ecofeminist politics in North America and internationally, showing how Ecofeminists are developing a radical synthesis of the goals of both feminism and ecology to create a global movement which cuts across race, class and national boundaries.

Chaia Heller is a writer, educator and activist working in the worlds of both Ecofeminism and Social Ecology.

October 30TH - 7:30pm, 1455 de Maisonneuve West, Room 407

Sponsored by:

INSTITUT
SIMONE DE BEAUVOIR INSTITUTE

The Urban Ecology Center

cost: 3 to 7$

info: 848-7585